Chapter 1- Preliminary and Restrictions on Insider Trading

1.1 Background

Regulation 9(1) of the Securities and Exchange Board (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 (“the Regulations”), as amended from time to time, mandates the Board of Directors of every listed company to formulate a Code of conduct (“the Code”) to regulate, monitor and report trading by its designated persons and immediate relatives of designated persons by adopting the minimum standards set out in Schedule B of the Regulations.

1.2 Objective of this Code of Conduct

This Code shall govern the conduct of Insiders, connected persons and ‘persons who are deemed to be connected on matters relating to Insider Trading.

Insider Trading involves trading in the listed securities of a company, by connected or any persons in possession of or with access to unpublished price sensitive information (“UPSI”) not available to the general public, who can take advantage of or benefit from such UPSI. Trading in securities by an ‘insider’ is regarded unfair when it is predicated upon utilisation of ‘inside’ information to profit at the expense of other investors who do not have access to the same information.

In order to fully understand the scope of restrictions on insider trading, it is first necessary to understand the following terms/definitions.

1.3 Definitions

(a) “Company” means Godrej Finance Limited (“GFL”).

(b) “Connected person” means:

(i) Any person who is or has been, during the six months prior to the concerned act, associated with a company, in any capacity, directly or indirectly, including by reason of frequent communication with its officers or by being in any contractual, fiduciary or employment relationship or by being a director, officer or an employee of the company or holds any position including a professional or business relationship, whether temporary or permanent, with the Company, that allows such a person, directly or indirectly, access to unpublished price sensitive information or is reasonably expected to allow such access.

(ii) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, the persons falling within the following categories shall be deemed to be connected persons unless the contrary is established -

- (a) a relative of connected persons specified in clause (i); or
- (b) a holding company or associate company or subsidiary company; or
- (c) an intermediary as specified in section 12 of the Securities & Exchange Board of India Act, 1992 or an employee or director thereof; or
- (d) an investment company, trustee company, asset management company or an employee or director thereof; or
- (e) an official of a stock exchange or of clearing house or corporation; or

- (f) a member of board of trustees of a mutual fund or a member of the board of directors of the asset management company of a mutual fund or is an employee thereof; or
- (g) a member of the board of directors or an employee, of a public financial institution as defined in section 2 (72) of the Companies Act, 2013; or
- (h) an official or an employee of a self-regulatory organization recognised or authorised by the Board; or
- (i) a banker of the company; or
- (j) a concern, firm, trust, Hindu undivided family, company or association of persons wherein a director of a company or his relative or banker of the company, has more than ten per cent of the holding or interest or;
- (k) a firm or its partner or its employee in which a connected person specified in point no. (b)(i) is also a partner; or
- (l) a person sharing household or residence with a connected person specified in point no. (b)(i).”

(c) “Compliance Officer” means any senior officer, designated so and reporting to the Board of Directors or head of the organization in case board is not there, who is financially literate and is capable of appreciating requirements for legal and regulatory compliance under the regulations and who shall be responsible for compliance of policies, procedures, maintenance of records, monitoring adherence to the rules for the preservation of unpublished price sensitive information, monitoring of trades and the implementation of the codes specified in the regulations under the overall supervision of the board of directors of the listed company or the head of an organization, as the case may be.

Explanation: For the purpose of this Regulation, “financially literate” shall mean a person who has the ability to read and understand basic financial statements i.e. balance sheet, profit and loss account, and statement of cash flows.

(d) “Dealing in securities” means an act of subscribing, buying, selling or agreeing to subscribe, buy, sell or deal in any securities by any person either as principal or agent.

(e) “Designated Persons” means:

- (i) Members of the Board of Directors of the Company,
- (ii) Members of the Management Committee of the Company,
- (iii) Chief Financial Officer (CFOs) of Holding company, listed subsidiary company and listed associate company,
- (iv) Level 3 employees,

1.4 Compliance Officer

The Company Secretary of the Company, shall act as the Compliance Officer for the purposes of the Regulations, who shall work subject to the guidance of the Chairperson and the Board of Directors and reports to the Board of Directors for the purpose of this Code and Regulation.

1.5 Restriction on Communication or procurement of UPSI

- a. No insider shall communicate, provide, or allow access to any UPSI relating to the Company or securities listed or proposed to be listed by the Company, to any person including other insiders except where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.
- b. No person shall procure from or cause the communication by any insider of UPSI, relating to the Company or securities listed or proposed to be listed by the Company, except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.
- c. Any person in receipt of UPSI pursuant to a legitimate purpose shall be considered as an insider for the purpose of this Code and the Regulations.
- d. The Designated Persons and Employees, sharing UPSI in furtherance of legitimate purposes, shall issue a due notice or enter into a confidentiality / non-disclosure agreement with such insider to maintain confidentiality of the UPSI in compliance with these rules and the Regulations.
- e. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, UPSI may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction that would:
 - (i) entail an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company;
 - (ii) not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that sharing of such information is in the best interest of the Company and the information that constitutes UPSI is disseminated to be made generally available at least 2 (two) trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the Board of Directors of the Company may determine to be adequate and fair to cover all relevant and material facts.
- f. For purpose of point (e) above, the Board of Directors of the Company shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the purpose of the above point (e), and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of UPSI.

1.6 Trading in Securities of the Company when in possession of UPSI

(i) Restriction on trading in Securities of the Company

No Insider shall trade in Securities of the Company that are listed or proposed to be listed on a stock exchange at any time when he/she is in possession of any UPSI.

Explanation –When a person who has traded in securities has been in possession of UPSI, his trades would be presumed to have been motivated by the knowledge and awareness of such information in his possession.

Such insider shall also maintain the confidentiality of all UPSI and shall not pass on such information to any person directly or indirectly by way of making a recommendation for the purchase or sale of Securities of the Company.

(ii) Joint holding

The provisions of this code shall also be applicable to all Designated persons and their immediate relatives for trading either as a first named shareholder or as a joint holder.

1.7 Chinese Wall

To prevent misuse of confidential information, the Company has laid down Chinese Walls procedures which separate those areas of the Company that routinely have access to confidential information, considered "inside areas" from those which deal with sale/marketing/investment advice or other departments providing support services, considered "public areas".

- (i) The employees in the inside area shall not communicate any UPSI to anyone in public area.
- (ii) The Company shall have the process of maintaining securely, computer files containing confidential information and physical storage of documents relating to UPSI.
- (iii) All the UPSI is to be handled on "need to know basis", i.e., UPSI should be disclosed only in furtherance of legitimate purpose and to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duty and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or appearance of misuse of the information. All the non-public information directly received by any employee should immediately be reported to the head of the department. In exceptional circumstances employees from the public areas may be brought "over the wall" and given confidential information on the basis of "need to know" criteria, under intimation to the Compliance Officer.

1.8 Pre-clearance of trades

- (i) All Designated Persons who are part of the Promoter and Promoter Group of the Company, who intend to trade in the securities of the Company (either in their own name or in any immediate relative's name) i.e. buy or sell or deal in securities, irrespective of the quantum (number of securities) or value of the transaction, shall make an application for pre-clearance in the format set out in Annexure A to the Compliance Officer indicating the estimated number of units of securities that the designated person or immediate relative(s) intends to trade, the details as to the depository with which he / she / it has a security account, the details as to the securities in such depository mode and such other details as specified in the form and also declare that the applicant is not in possession of UPSI.

- (ii) All Designated Persons other than Promoters and Members of the Promoter Group who intend to trade in the securities of the Company (either in their own name or in any immediate relative's name) i.e. buy or sell or deal in securities and if value of the securities likely to be traded, whether in one transaction or a series of transactions in calendar quarter, aggregates to a traded value in excess of ₹10,00,000 (Rupees Ten Lakh Only), shall make an application for pre-clearance in the format set out in Annexure A to the Compliance Officer indicating the estimated number of units of securities that the designated person or immediate relative(s) intends to trade, the details as to the depository with which he / she/ it has a security account, the details as to the securities in such depository mode and such other details as specified in the form and also declare that the applicant is not in possession of UPSI.
- (iii) No designated person shall apply for pre-clearance of any proposed trade if such designated person is in possession of UPSI even if the trading window is not closed. No designated person shall trade in Securities of the Company that are listed or proposed to be listed on a stock exchange at any time when he/she is in possession of any UPSI.
- (iv) The Compliance Officer shall also determine whether any such declaration is reasonably capable of being rendered inaccurate.
- (v) All Designated Persons of the Company and their immediate relatives shall execute their order in respect of securities of the Company within 7 (seven) trading days after the approval of pre-clearance is given. If the trade is not executed within 7 (seven) trading days after the approval order is given, the Designated Person(s) and their immediate relative(s), as the case may be, must obtain a fresh pre-clearance from the Compliance Officer for the transaction before the trade is executed.

1.9 No Trading Period

- (i) The trading period during which securities of the Company can be traded is called trading window. The trading window shall be closed during the time the price sensitive information is un-published.
- (ii) When the trading window is closed, the Designated Persons (including their immediate relatives) shall not trade in securities of the Company in such period.
- (iii) The trading window shall be closed at the time of occurrence of UPSI and such other time as the compliance officer determines that a ddesignated person or class of designated person is reasonably expected to have possession of unpublished price sensitive information.
- (iv) The Compliance Officer shall also close the trading window when he / she determines that a designated person or class of designated persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of UPSI. Such closure shall be imposed in relation to such securities to which such UPSI relates. The trading window shall be opened 48 (Forty-Eight) hours after the UPSI becomes generally available.

The trading window provisions shall also be applicable to any person having contractual or fiduciary relation with the Company, such as auditors, accountancy firms, law firms, analysts, insolvency professional entities, consultants, banks etc., assisting or advising the Company.

- (v) The Compliance Officer after taking into account various factors including the UPSI in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, shall decide the timing for re-opening of the trading window, however in any event it shall not be earlier than 48 (Forty-Eight) hours after the information becomes generally available.
- (vi) The following transactions shall not attract trading window restrictions mentioned above, however, the Designated Persons shall have to obtain pre-clearance from the compliance officer, irrespective of the value of the proposed trade in compliance with the Regulations:
 - a) an off-market inter-se transfer between insiders who were in possession of the same UPSI*,
 - b) a transaction carried out through the block deal window mechanism between persons who were in possession of the UPSI *,
 - c) a transaction carried out pursuant to a statutory or regulatory obligation to carry out a bona fide transaction,
 - d) the transaction in question was undertaken pursuant to exercise of stock options, if any in respect of which exercise price was pre-determined in compliance with applicable regulations
 - e) trades pursuant to a trading plan set up in accordance with these Regulations;
 - f) pledge of shares/securities for a bona fide purpose such as raising funds
- (vii) The transactions undertaken in accordance with respective SEBI regulations such as acquisition by conversion of warrants or debentures, subscribing to rights issue, further public issue, preferential allotment or tendering of shares in a buy-back offer, open offer and delisting offer, or transactions undertaken through such other mechanism as may be specified by SEBI from time to time, shall not attract trading window restrictions.

 the Unpublished Price Sensitive Information should not be obtained under sub-regulation 3 of Regulation 3 of the Regulations or such other applicable provisions of the Regulations.*

1.10 Holding Period/Contra Trade

- (i) Designated person (including their immediate relatives) who is permitted to trade shall not execute a contra trade i.e. enter into an opposite transaction during the next 6 (Six) months following the prior transaction ("contra trade"). However, the restriction on contra trade shall not apply to trades pursuant to exercise of stock options, if any
- (ii) The compliance officer may be empowered to grant relaxation from strict application of such restriction for reasons to be recorded in writing provided that such relaxation does not violate the Regulations.

1.11 Trading by Portfolio Managers

The code is also applicable to insiders who engage Portfolio Managers to trade in securities and hence the insiders are expected to take due precaution while trading in securities through Portfolio Managers by:

- Informing Portfolio Managers about closure of trading window,
- Ensuring to seek pre-clearance, wherever applicable, when the Portfolio Manager proposes to trade in Securities of the Company exceeding threshold limit and also make continual disclosures, wherever applicable, as provided in this Code,
- Ensuring that the portfolio manager abides by the requirement of minimum holding period and not do contra trade as provided in this Code,
- Prohibiting the Portfolio manager to trade in securities of the Company at his own discretion or when the insider is in possession of UPSI.

Despite the above, if any trading is done by portfolio managers, it will be treated as trading done by the insider, and therefore the insider will be held responsible for any such non-compliance and subject to such penalties as specified in this code.

Chapter 2 - Disclosures & Reporting

Apart from the restrictions mentioned in Chapter 1, the Company is required to obtain certain disclosures and is empowered to levy penalties as and when deemed fit.

The disclosures to be made by any person under this Chapter shall also include those relating to such person's immediate relatives and any other person for whom such person takes trading decisions.

The disclosures of trading in securities shall also include trading in derivatives of securities and the traded value of the derivatives shall be taken into account for purposes of this Chapter:

Provided that trading in derivatives of securities is permitted by any law for the time being in force.
