1. BACKGROUND, OBJECTIVES AND SCOPE

1.1 Background

The Prevention of Money Laundering Act, 2002 (“PMLA”) and the Rules notified thereunder impose several obligation on Banks, Non-Banking Financial Companies (“NBFC”), Housing Finance Companies (“HFCs”), Chit Fund Company and other defined intermediaries to inter alia verify identity of clients, maintain records and furnish requisite information to Financial Intelligence Unit- India (“FIU-IND”).

The Reserve Bank of India (“RBI”) has issued Reserve Bank of India (Non-Banking Financial Companies – Know Your Customer) Directions, 2025 on November 28, 2025 (“RBI KYC Directions”) applicable to all categories of Non-Banking Financial Company (hereinafter collectively referred to as 'NBFCs' and individually as an 'NBFC'), for all layers, unless specified otherwise.

In accordance with the PMLA and the RBI KYC Directions, Godrej Finance Limited (“GFL” or “the Company”), has adopted Board approved ‘Know Your Customer (“KYC”) and Anti-Money Laundering (“AML”) Policy’ (“KYC and AML Policy”).

1.2 Policy Objective

Key objectives of the KYC and AML Policy are as under:

- (a) To establish regulatorily compliant KYC mechanism to on-board customers;
- (b) To ensure compliance throughout the life-cycle of customers as per the laid down norms;
- (c) To prevent the Company’s business channels/ products/ services from being used as a channel for Money Laundering (“ML”)/ Terrorist Financing (“TF”);
- (d) To establish a framework for adopting appropriate AML procedures and controls in the operations/ business processes of the Company;
- (e) To ensure compliance with the laws and regulations in force from time to time;
- (f) To protect the Company’s reputation;
- (g) To lay down KYC-AML compliance norms for the employees of the Company.

1.3 Applicability

This policy is applicable to all categories of products and services offered by the Company. All the employees of the Company, while dealing with its customers, will have to ensure adherence with the KYC and AML Policy.

Such processes complying with prescribed standards and procedures shall be treated on par with face-to-face Customer Identification Procedure.

3. POLICY STANDARDS

3.1 Compliance of KYC policy

- a) Senior Management for the purpose of KYC Compliance shall mean Designated Director and Principal Officer
- b) Designated Director on recommendation of Principal Officer shall be responsible for setting up the policies which will be approved by the Board on recommendation of Audit Committee
- c) Principal Officer with support of Compliance Team be responsible for overseeing the KYC operations of the Company
- d) Field Sales, operations and credit team shall be responsible for ensuring that policy is followed

- e) Internal Audit function will review the KYC operations as mentioned in paragraph 3.4.3 of the Policy
- f) Quarterly audit notes and compliance shall be submitted to the Audit Committee
- g) Decision-making functions of determining compliance with KYC norms shall not be outsourced

3.2 The KYC and AML Policy has the following 4 key elements:

- (a) Policy for Customer Acceptance (CAP).
- (b) Risk Management from money laundering risk perspective.
- (c) Customer Identification Procedures (CIP).
- (d) Procedures for monitoring of transactions, as applicable.

3.3 Customer Acceptance Policy (CAP) and Customer Due Diligence (CDD)

The Company will adhere to the following criteria for acceptance of customers:

- (a) The Company will not open any account(s) in anonymous, fictitious or 'benami' name(s) and where proper due diligence cannot be applied.
- (b) No account will be opened where the Company is unable to apply required CDD measures, either due to non-cooperation of the customer or non-reliability of the documents/information furnished by the customer. The Company shall consider filing an Suspicious Transaction Report (STR), if necessary, when it is unable to comply with the relevant CDD measures in relation to the customer.
- (c) No transaction or account-based relationship will be undertaken without following appropriate CDD procedure.
- (d) The mandatory information to be sought for KYC purpose at the time of login of loan / credit facility and during the periodic updation is being specified.

Additional information, where such information requirement has not been specified in the internal KYC Policy of the Company, shall be obtained with the explicit consent of the customer.

- (e) A Customer Identification File (CIF) number which is a Unique Customer Identification Code (UCIC) is being allotted while entering into new relationships with individual customers
- (f) CDD procedure is being applied at the UCIC level & thus, if an existing KYC compliant customer of GFL desires to open another account or avail any other product or service from GFL, there shall be no need for a fresh CDD exercise as far as identification of the customer is concerned
- (g) Additional information, if any as per internal policy, will be obtained with consent of the customer.
- (h) CDD Procedure is being followed for all joint account holders also.
- (i) A customer will be permitted to act on behalf of another person/ entity in accordance with the legal requirements.
- (j) Identity of the customer shall not match with any person with known criminal background or with banned entities such as individual terrorists or terrorist organizations, etc. For this purpose, the Company will maintain lists of individuals or entities issued by RBI, United Nations Security Council, UAPA other regulatory & enforcement agencies etc. Details of accounts/ customers bearing resemblance with any of the individuals/ entities in such list shall be treated as suspicious and reported.

- (k) PAN number/ Goods and Services Tax Number will be verified from the verification facility of the issuing authority.
- (l) Where an equivalent e-document is obtained from the customer, the Company shall verify the digital signature as per the provisions of the Information Technology Act, 2000 (21 of 2000).
- (m) In order to avoid fictitious and fraudulent applications of the customers and to achieve a reasonable degree of satisfaction as to the identity of the customer, the Company will conduct appropriate due diligence. Beneficiary of the relationship/ account shall also be identified.
- (n) The nature and extent of basic due diligence measures to be conducted at the time of establishment of account opening/ relationship, will depend upon the risk category of the customers and involve collection and recording of information by using reliable independent documents, data or any other information. This may include identification and verification of the applicant and wherever relevant, ascertaining of occupational details, legal status, ownership and control structure and any additional information in line with the assessment of the risks posed by the applicant and the applicant's expected use of the Company's products and services from an AML perspective.
- (o) The Company may rely on third party verification subject to the conditions prescribed by the RBI or the PMLA and the Rules thereunder in this regard.
- (p) For non-face-to-face customers, appropriate due diligence measures (including certification requirements of documents, if any) will be devised for identification and verification of such customers.
- (q) The information collected from customers for the purpose of opening of account shall be treated as confidential and details thereof shall not be divulged for the purpose of cross selling, or for any other purpose without expressed consent of the customer.
- (r) Appropriate Enhanced Due Diligence ("EDD") measures shall be adopted for high risk customers from AML perspective, especially those for whom the sources of funds are not clear and customers who are Politically Exposed Persons ("PEPs").
- (s) In respect of unusual or suspicious transactions/applications or when the customer moves from a low risk to a high-risk profile, appropriate EDD measures shall be adopted.
- (t) Where the Company is unable to apply appropriate KYC measures due to non-furnishing of information and /or non-cooperation by the customer, the Company may consider closing the account or terminating the business relationship. However, the decision to close an existing account shall be taken at the Principal Officer's level, after giving due notice to the customer explaining the reasons for such a decision.
- (u) Suitable system as contained in Chapter XI of RBI KYC Directions shall be put in place/ to ensure that the identity of the customer which does not match with any person or entity, whose name appears in the sanctions lists If Company is suspicious of money laundering or terrorist financing, and it reasonably believes that performing the CDD process will tip-off the customer, it shall not pursue the CDD process, and instead file an STR with FIU-IND.

The aspects mentioned in the CAP would be reckoned while evolving the KYC/AML procedures for various types of customers and products. However, while developing the KYC/CDD procedures, the Company will ensure that its procedures do not become too restrictive or pose significant difficulties in availing its services by deserving general public, especially the financially and socially disadvantaged sections of society, including the Persons with Disabilities (PwDs). No application for onboarding or periodic updation of KYC shall be rejected without application of mind (i.e. the process shall be more inclusive and accessible to all Persons with Disabilities, particularly acid attack survivors suffering from permanent facial or eye disfigurement and similarly placed individuals, including persons with blindness and low vision). In case the application or period updation of KYC of any customer is rejected, the reason(s) for such rejection shall be duly recorded by the Company's employee.

3.4 Risk Management

The Company will ensure that it has effective and appropriate KYC procedures. The overall KYC/ AML program will cover proper management oversight, systems and controls, segregation of duties, training and other related matters. Responsibilities will be explicitly allocated within the Company to ensure that the Company's policies and procedures are implemented effectively.

3.4.1 Risk Categorization

The Company will categorize its customers into low, medium and high-risk category based on the assessment, profiling and perceived money laundering risk. Principles for risk-categorisation of customers are being laid down by the Company.

Risk categorisation is being undertaken based on parameters such as customer's identity, social/financial status, nature of business activity, and information about the customer's business and their location, geographical risk covering customers as well as transactions, type of products/services offered, delivery channel used for delivery of products/services, types of transaction undertaken – cash, cheque/monetary instruments, wire transfers, forex transactions, etc. While considering customer's identity, the ability to confirm identity documents through online or other services offered by issuing authorities may also be factored in.

The risk categorisation of a customer and the specific reasons (including non-intrusive information) for such categorisation shall be kept confidential and shall not be revealed to the customer to avoid tipping off the customer.

3.4.2 Updation/Periodic Updation

The Company shall adopt a risk-based approach for periodic updation of KYC ensuring that the information or data collected under CDD is kept up-to-date and relevant, particularly where there is high-risk. The Company will conduct periodic updation of KYC documents at least once in every 2 years for high risk customers, once in every 8 years for medium risk customers and once in every 10 years for low risk customers in any of the following manner:

- (i) PAN verification from the verification facility available with the issuing authority.
- (ii) GST verification from the verification facility available with the issuing authority.
- (iii) Authentication of Aadhaar Number already available with the Company with the explicit consent of the customer in applicable cases.
- (iv) In case of individuals except low-risk customers, certified copy of OVD containing identity and address shall be obtained at the time of updation/periodic updation. In case of low risk customers when there is no change in status with respect to their identities and addresses, a self-certification to that effect shall be obtained.

Incase of change only in address, a self-declaration of the new address shall be obtained from the customer the declared address shall be verified through positive confirmation within two months, by means such as address verification letter, contact point verification, deliverables, etc. Company may also obtain a copy of OVD for the purpose of proof of updated address.

Incase of change in any other KYC information, Company shall undertake the KYC process equivalent to that applicable for onboarding a new individual customer.

- (v) In case of Legal entities (“LE”), the Company shall review the documents sought at the time of grant of loan / credit facility and obtain fresh certified copies, incase of no change. However, in case of change in any KYC information, Company shall undertake the KYC process equivalent to that applicable for onboarding a new LE customer
- (vi) The Company shall provide facility for of updation/ periodic updation of KYC at any branch for convenience of the customer.
- (vii) The Company will not insist on the physical presence of the customer for the purpose of furnishing OVD or furnishing consent for Aadhaar authentication unless there are sufficient reasons that physical presence of the borrower is required to establish their bona-fides. Normally, OVD/ Consent forwarded by the customer through mail/ post, etc., shall be acceptable.
- (viii) The Company shall send advance intimation to its customers to update their KYC. Prior to the due date of periodic updation of KYC, the Company shall give at least three advance intimations, including one intimation by letter, at appropriate intervals to its customers through Email, SMS, etc. for complying with the requirement of periodic updation of KYC. Further, after the due date, the Company shall give at least three reminders, including one reminder by letter, at appropriate intervals, to such customers who have still not complied with the requirements, despite advance intimations. Such letter of intimation/ reminder may, inter alia, contain instructions for updating KYC, customer escalation matrix, and such other information as the Company may deem fit. The Company shall record and maintain trail of issue of such advance intimation/ reminder against each customer for audit trail.
- (ix) The Company will provide an acknowledgment of following to the customer:
 - receipt of the relevant document(s), including self-declaration for carrying out updation/periodic updation
 - date on which periodic KYC updation was conducted

Note:

- The frequency for periodic updation prescribed above would apply from the date of disbursement of loan / last verification of KYC.
- Company shall advise the customers that in order to comply with the Prevention of Money Laundering Rules, in case of any update in the documents submitted by the customer at the time of establishment of relationship with the Company and thereafter, as necessary; customers shall submit to the Company the updated document within 30 days of the update to the documents for the purpose of updating the records with the Company.
- High risk accounts shall be subjected to more intensified monitoring. A system of periodic review of risk categorisation of accounts, with such periodicity being at least once in six months, and the need for applying enhanced due diligence measures shall be put in place.

3.4.3 Internal Audit and Assurance

To provide reasonable assurance that its KYC and AML procedures are functioning effectively, audit of its KYC and AML processes will also be covered under the scope of Internal Audit of the Company. The audit findings and compliance thereof will be put up before the Audit Committee of the Board till closure of audit findings.

3.4.4 Money Laundering (“ML”) and Terrorist Financing (“TF”) Risk Assessment

It is understood that the ML and TF risks for the Company are likely to be low due to the following reasons:

- (i) The Company does not operate in other countries/ geographies;
- (ii) The Company does not source/ originate loans from other countries/ geographies and its customer base consists of Indian nationals only;
- (iii) The Company extends loans to identified borrowers for which rigorous KYC checks have been put in place
- (iv) The Company does not offer banking, liabilities and insurance products; and
- (v) The Company offers loans/ credit facilities with defined end-use and verifies the same.

However, in accordance with the regulatory requirements, the Company is carrying out ML and TF Internal Risk Assessment (IRA) exercise periodically to identify, assess and take effective measures to mitigate money laundering and terrorist financing risk for clients, countries or geographic areas, products, services, transactions or delivery channels etc.

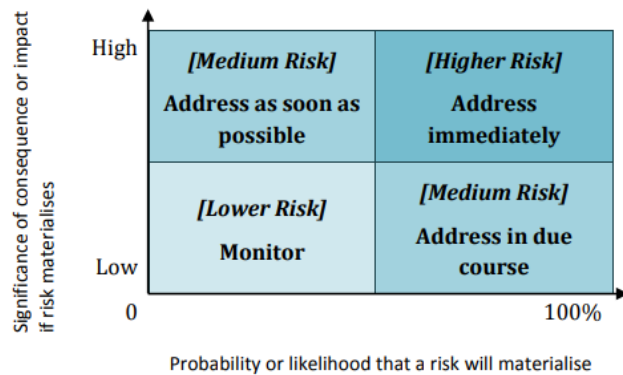

Such assessment process will consider various relevant risk factors before determining the level of overall risk and the appropriate level and type of mitigation to be applied. While preparing the internal risk assessment, Company shall take cognizance of the overall sector-specific vulnerabilities, if any, that the regulator/supervisor may share.

The Company may refer to Internal Risk Assessment Guidance for Money Laundering/ Terrorist Financing Risks issued by RBI and involve officials from various teams such as Product, Customer service and Internal audit.

The Internal risk assessment exercise and the methodology by the Company will be properly documented and be proportionate to the nature, size, geographical presence, complexity of activities/structure, etc. of the Company.

The risk assessment shall involve relevant functions and have the following stages:

- (i) Identification- Development of list of potential risks or risk factors drawn from known/ suspected threats or vulnerabilities. For this purpose, various important aspects of the KYC Policy (non-compliance of which may pose threat to the Company) will be identified along with the risks which the Company may be exposed to due to the same.
- (ii) Analysis- Implementation of key requirements under the KYC Policy should be analyzed. This stage should analyse the likelihood and the impact of each of the identified risks. It will help in assigning priority/ importance to each of the risks.
- (iii) Evaluation- It should involve taking the results found during the analysis process to determine priorities for addressing the risks. These priorities should contribute to development of a strategy for their mitigation. A typical Risk Evaluation matrix would be as under:

The Company shall conduct the ML and TF IRA based on Risk based approach (RBA) covering Business Level IRA and individual (Customer) Level IRA on half-yearly frequency. The outcome of the ML and TF IRA will be put up to the Audit Committee. The IRA report may include the following details:

- i Brief profile of the Company
- ii Executive summary;
- iii Threats of ML/TF faced;
- iv Inherent ML/TF risks and vulnerabilities assessed;
- v Methodology applied for the assessment;
- vi ML/TF risk-factors assessed;
- vii Controls applied;
- viii Residual risk identified;
- ix Outcomes;
- x Mitigating measures proposed;
- xi Enforcement actions taken by supervisors, LEAs, etc., during the last five years;
- xii Observations and findings of internal audit regarding AML/CFT measures;
- xiii Case studies or illustrations may be included, wherever appropriate.

The Company is committed in ensuring that it is not made a vehicle for any kind of money laundering or terror financing. For this purpose, Company will, if required, share information with its group entities while maintaining confidentiality of information with confirmation that such information will not be used for any tip-off.

3.5 Customer Identification

3.5.1 The Company shall undertake identification of customers in the following cases:

- (a) Commencement of an account-based relationship with a customer.
- (b) Carrying out any international money transfer operations for a person who is not an account holder of the Company.
- (c) When there is a doubt about the authenticity or adequacy of the customer identification data it has obtained.
- (d) Selling third party products as agents, selling their own products or any other product for more than rupees fifty thousand.
- (e) Carrying out transactions for a non-account-based customer where the amount involved is equal to or exceeds Rs.50,000/-, whether conducted as a single transaction or several transactions that appear to be connected.

- (f) When it has reason to believe that a customer is intentionally structuring a transaction into a series of transactions below the threshold of Rs.50,000/-.

3.5.2 Reliance on customer due diligence done by third party

For the purpose of verifying the identity of customers at the time of commencement of an account-based relationship or while carrying out occasional transaction of an amount equal to or exceeding rupees fifty thousand, whether conducted as a single transaction or several transactions that appear to be connected, the Company, may at their option, rely on customer due diligence done by a domestic third party, subject to the following conditions:

- (a) Records or the information of the customer due diligence carried out by the third party is obtained immediately from the third party or from the Central KYC Records Registry;
- (b) Copies of identification data and other relevant documentation relating to the customer due diligence requirements shall be made available from the third party upon request without delay;
- (c) The third party is regulated, supervised or monitored for, and has measures in place for, compliance with customer due diligence and record-keeping requirements in line with the requirements and obligations under the PMLA;
- (d) The third party shall not be based in a country or jurisdiction assessed as high risk and
- (e) The ultimate responsibility for customer due diligence and undertaking enhanced due diligence measures, as applicable, will be with the Company.

3.6 Customer Due Diligence (CDD) Procedures

The Company will ensure compliance with the regulatory/ statutory requirements with respect to the Customer Identification Procedure to be carried out at different stages, i.e. while establishing a relationship; carrying out a financial transaction or when the Company has a doubt about the authenticity/veracity or the adequacy of the previously obtained customer identification data etc.

Customer identification means identifying the customer and verifying his/ her identity by using reliable, independent source documents, data or information. The Company will obtain sufficient information necessary to establish, identity of each new customer, whether regular or occasional and the purpose of the intended nature of relationship.

3.6.1 CDD Procedure in case of Individuals

3.6.1.1 Documents/ Information to be collected

From an individual (who is prospective customer OR a Beneficial Owner/ Authorised Signatory/ Power of Attorney Holder related to any legal entity) the following documents/ information will be obtained:

- (a) Recent photograph;
- (b) Certified copy of Permanent Account Number (PAN) OR the equivalent e-document thereof;
- (c) Certified copy of one of the OVDs as defined above to be taken for verification of the identity and the address OR the equivalent e-document thereof; and
- (d) Other documents including in respect of the nature of business and financial status of the client OR the equivalent e-document thereof, as may be required by the Company.

➤ Note:

- (i) If PAN is not availed then Form No. 60 as defined in Income-tax Rules, 1962 may be taken;
- (ii) Aadhaar Offline Verification- The Company, being a non-bank, may carry out offline verification of a customer if he is desirous of undergoing Aadhaar offline verification for identification purpose. However, where a customer submits his Aadhaar number, the Company will ensure such customer to redact or blackout his Aadhaar number through appropriate means where the authentication of Aadhaar number is not required under the Aadhaar Act.
- (iii) Authentication using e-KYC authentication facility provided by the UIDAI- As and when the Company is authorized to conduct authorization through e-KYC authentication facility provided by the UIDAI, it may conduct such authorization and use the e-KYC facility in accordance with the conditions prescribed under the PMLA/ the Aadhaar Act/ the KYC & AML Guidelines.
- (iv) Aadhaar number is not mandatory for purposes of KYC - In case the customer is desirous of receiving any benefit or subsidy under any scheme notified under section 7 of the Aadhaar (Targeted Delivery of Financial and Other subsidies, Benefits and Services) Act, 2016 (18 of 2016), the customer shall provide the Aadhaar number to the Company. However, in other cases, customers may provide the Aadhaar number voluntarily.
- (v) If the customer provides an equivalent e-document of any OVD, the Company should verify the digital signature as per the provisions of the Information Technology Act, 2000 (21 of 2000) and any rules issues thereunder and take a live photo as specified under Digital KYC Process defined below (at sub-para 3.6.1.3).
The Company may also carry-out KYC verification under Digital KYC Process defined below (at sub-para 3.6.1.3).
- (vi) The KYC Identifier with an explicit consent to download records from CKYCR shall be considered as sufficient for CDD for individuals.

3.6.1.2 Video based Customer Identification Process (“V-CIP”)

The Company may undertake live V-CIP, to be carried out by an official of the Company, for establishment of an account-based relationship with an individual customer, after obtaining his informed consent. The Company, if implements V-CIP, will adhere to the extant applicable requirements.

3.6.1.3 Digital KYC Process

In case Digital KYC Process is adopted by the Company, it will ensure compliance with the following requirements:

- (a) It will use an Application to be made available at customer touch points for undertaking KYC of their customers and the KYC process shall be undertaken only through this authenticated application of the Company.
- (b) The access of such Application should be controlled by the authorized persons of the Company. The Application shall be accessed only through login-id and password or Live OTP or Time OTP controlled mechanism defined by the Company.
- (c) The customer, for the purpose of KYC, shall visit the location of the Authorized Official of the Company (“Authorized Official”) vice-versa. The original OVD should be in possession of the customer.

- (d) It should be ensured that the Live photograph of the customer is taken by the Authorized Official and the same photograph is embedded in the Customer Application Form (CAF). Further, a water-mark in readable form having CAF number, GPS coordinates, Authorized Official's name, unique employee Code (assigned by REs) and Date (DD:MM:YYYY) and time stamp (HH:MM:SS) should be put on the captured live photograph of the customer.
- (e) The Application should have the feature that only live photograph of the customer is captured and no printed or video-graphed photograph of the customer is captured. The background behind the customer while capturing live photograph should be of white colour and no other person shall come into the frame while capturing the live photograph of the customer.
- (f) The live photograph of the original OVD or proof of possession of Aadhaar (where offline verification cannot be carried out), placed horizontally, shall be captured vertically from above and water-marking in readable form as mentioned above shall be done. No skew or tilt in the mobile device should be there while capturing the live photograph of the original documents.
- (g) The live photograph of the customer and his original documents shall be captured in proper light so that they are clear.
- (h) Thereafter, all the entries in the CAF should be filled as per the documents and information furnished by the customer. In those documents where Quick Response (QR) code is available, such details can be auto-populated by scanning the QR code instead of manual filing the details. For example, in case of physical Aadhaar/e-Aadhaar downloaded from UIDAI where QR code is available, the details like name, gender, date of birth and address can be auto-populated by scanning the QR available on Aadhaar/e-Aadhaar.
- (i) Once the above-mentioned process is completed, a One Time Password (OTP) message containing the text that 'Please verify the details filled in form before sharing OTP' shall be sent to customer's own mobile number. Upon successful validation of the OTP, it will be treated as customer signature on CAF. However, if the customer does not have his/her own mobile number, then mobile number of his/her family/relatives/known persons may be used for this purpose and be clearly mentioned in CAF. In any case, the mobile number of the Authorized Official should not be used for customer signature. The Company will check that the mobile number used in customer signature shall not be the mobile number of the Authorized Official.
- (j) The Authorized Official should provide a declaration about the capturing of the live photograph of customer and the original document. For this purpose, the authorized official shall be verified with One Time Password (OTP) which will be sent to his official mobile number. Upon successful OTP validation, it shall be treated as the Authorized Official's signature on the declaration. The live photograph of the Authorized Official shall also be captured in this authorized officer's declaration.
- (k) Subsequent to all these activities, the Application should give information about the completion of the process and submission of activation request to activation officer of the Company, and also generate the transaction-id/reference-id number of the process. The Authorized Official shall intimate the details regarding transaction-id/reference-id number to customer for future reference.
- (l) The Authorized Official should check and verify that: (i) information available in the picture of document is matching with the information entered by the Authorized Official in CAF. (ii) live photograph of the customer matches with the photo available in the document; and (iii) all of the necessary details in CAF including mandatory field are filled properly. However, the Company shall ensure that the liveness check does not result in exclusion of person with special needs.

- (m) On Successful verification, the CAF shall be digitally signed by the Authorized Official who will take a print of CAF, get signatures/thumb-impression of customer at appropriate place, then scan and upload the same in system. Original hard copy may be returned to the customer.

3.6.1.4 Simplified procedure for opening accounts of Individuals

In case a person who desires to open an account is not able to produce any of the OVDs, the Company may at its discretion open accounts subject to the following conditions:

- (a) The Company shall obtain a self-attested photograph from the customer.
- (b) The authorized officer of the Company should certify under his signature that the person opening the account has affixed his signature or thumb impression in his presence.
- (c) The account shall remain operational initially for a period of 12 months, within which CDD as prescribed above should be carried out.
- (d) Balances in all their accounts taken together shall not exceed Rs.50,000/- at any point of time.
- (e) The total credit in all the accounts taken together shall not exceed Rs.1,00,000/- in a year.
- (f) The customer shall be made aware that no further transactions will be permitted until the full KYC procedure is completed in case Directions (d) and (e) above are breached by him.
- (g) When the balance reaches Rs.40,000/- or the total credit in a year reaches Rs.80,000/-, The customer shall be notified that appropriate documents for conducting the KYC must be submitted otherwise the operations in the account shall be stopped when the total balance in all the accounts taken together exceeds the limits prescribed in direction (d) and (e) above.
- (h) The account shall be monitored and when there is suspicion of ML/TF activities or other high-risk scenarios, the identity of the customer shall be established as per para 3.6.1.1 to 3.6.1.3 above.

KYC verification once done by one branch/office of the Company shall be valid for transfer of account to any other branch/office of the same Company, provided full KYC verification has already been done for the concerned account and the same is not due for periodic updation.

3.6.2 On-boarding the Borrowers through Central KYC Registry

Company shall endeavor to provide option to the applicants to be on-boarded through verifying their antecedents through Central KYC Registry.

3.6.3 CDD Measures for Legal Entities

For due diligence with respect to legal entities, the Company will obtain the documents as listed in the Annexure 1.

3.6.4 Identification of Beneficial Owner

For opening an account of an entity who is not a natural person, the beneficial owner(s) (as defined above) shall be identified and all reasonable steps to verify his/her identity shall be undertaken. While doing so, the Company will keep the following in view:

- (a) Where the customer or the owner of the controlling interest is (i) an entity listed on a stock exchange in India, or (ii) it is an entity resident in jurisdictions notified by the Central Government and listed on stock exchanges in such jurisdictions, or (iii) it is a subsidiary of such listed entities; it is not necessary to identify and verify the identity of any shareholder or beneficial owner of such entities
- (b) In cases of trust/ nominee or fiduciary accounts, where it is determined that the customer is acting on behalf of another person as trustee/ nominee or so, identity of the intermediaries and of the persons on whose behalf he is acting, as also details of the nature of the trust or other arrangements in place will be obtained.

3.7 Enhanced Due Diligence (EDD) Procedures

3.7.1 Accounts of non-face-to-face customers:

Non-face-to-face onboarding is where the Company establishes relationship with the customer without meeting the customer physically or through V-CIP or by use of digital channels such as CKYCR, DigiLocker, equivalent e-document, etc., and non-digital modes such as obtaining copy of OVD certified by additional certifying authorities as allowed for NRIs and PIOs.

The Company shall ensure following EDD measures are undertaken for all non-face-to-face customers onboarded except for customers onboarded using Aadhaar OTP based e-KYC:

- (a) Whenever the Company introduces the process of V-CIP, the same shall be provided as first option to the customer for remote onboarding and the processes complying with prescribed standards and procedures for V-CIP shall be treated on par with face-to-face CIP for the purpose of this KYC Directions.
- (b) In order to prevent frauds, alternate mobile numbers shall not be linked post CDD with such accounts for transaction OTP, transaction updates, etc. Transactions shall be permitted only from the mobile number used at the time of login.
- (c) Company shall develop and implement robust process of due diligence for dealing with requests for change of registered mobile number.
- (d) Apart from obtaining the current address proof, the Company shall verify the current address through positive confirmation before allowing operations in the account. Positive confirmation may be carried out by means such as address verification letter, contact point verification, deliverables, etc.
- (e) Company shall obtain PAN from the customer and the PAN shall be verified from the verification facility of the issuing authority.
- (f) Transaction with customers shall be from existing KYC-complied bank account of the customer.
- (g) Such non-face-to-face customers shall be categorized as high-risk customers and accounts opened in non-face to face mode shall be subjected to enhanced monitoring until the identity of the customer is verified in face-to-face manner or through V-CIP.

3.7.2 Accounts of Politically Exposed Persons (PEPs): If the Company decides to establish a business relationship with PEPs (whether as customer or beneficial owner), it will ensure the following:

- (a) appropriate risk management system is in place to determine whether the customer or the beneficial owner is a PEP
- (b) sufficient information including information about the sources of funds of PEPs is gathered;
- (c) the identity of the person shall have been verified before accepting the PEP as a customer;
- (d) the decision to open an account for a PEP is taken at a senior management level in accordance with the Company's procedures;
- (e) all such accounts will be classified as High Risk and will be subjected to required due diligence and monitoring, as applicable;
- (f) if it gets confirmed to the Company that an existing customer or the beneficial owner of an existing account has subsequently become a PEP, an approval from a senior management of the Company will be obtained to continue the business relationship;

Further, such existing accounts which get classified PEPs subsequently will be subjected to enhanced due diligence, as applicable.

The above will also be applicable to accounts where a PEP is the beneficial owner or the family members or close associates of PEPs.

3.8 Monitoring of Transactions/ On-Going Due Diligence

Ongoing monitoring is an essential element of effective KYC procedures. The Company can effectively control and reduce its risk only if it has an understanding of the normal and reasonable activity of the customer so that it can identify transactions that fall outside the regular pattern. The Company will put in place a process to identify and review complex and unusual transactions/ patterns which have no apparent economic or visible lawful purpose, or transactions that involve large amounts of cash or are inconsistent with the normal and expected activity of the customer.

3.9 Appointment of the Designated Director and the Principal Officer

- (a) Designated Director- The Company has nominated a "Designated Director" to ensure compliance with the obligations prescribed by the PMLA and the Rules thereunder.
- (b) Principal Officer- The Company has designated one of its senior officials as the 'Principal Officer' who will be responsible for ensuring compliance, monitoring transactions, and sharing and reporting information as required under the law/ regulations.

The name, designation, address and contact details of Designated Director and Principal Officer shall be communicated to FIU-IND and RBI and shall also be informed in case of any change.
